TO COMMENCE CONSTRUCTION OF NEW FACTORY BUILDING

D. E. H. Firm Has Special Permit From Government to Erect New Plant on Elizabeth Street Property — Will be Finished in Three Months.

TO BE 50x150 FEET

Employment For 25 to 30 Hands at The Start—Manufacture Electrical Elements And Small Tools—At Present Engaged on War Contracts.

Within the next week or 10 days construction work will be started on the new factory for the D. E. H. firm of Ottawa, which some months ago purchased the property on the west side of Elizabeth street between the C.N.R. and the Queen Elizabeth highway and running back to the creek.

A representative of the firm is in town this week making arrangements for the taking out of the foundation and other details in connection with the new building.

At the present time this firm is one hundred per cent engaged on war contracts in the Ottawa plant and has been granted a special permit by the government for the building of the Grimsby factory. It was originally intended to build a main building in the form of a letter "H" but for the present they will only be allowed to construct one portion of it, this will be 50 by 150 feet.

GRIMSBY BOYS IN ENGLAND RECEIVE THEIR CIGARETTES

There Has Been Much Hubbub About Overseas Shipments But Local Fags go Through Okay — 287,000 Supplied to Date From Funds Donated by Citizens.

YOU CAN HELP

One Boy Writes "You Good People Don't Know How it Make a Man Feel to Get Parcels of 300 Smokes."

"Cammy", Millard the Pill-pounding collector of funds and shipper of cigarettes overseas, for the Chamber of Commerce, is in receipt of another batch of letters from our Grimsby lads and this all goes to prove that Grimsby cigarettes are reaching their destination okay. Up to date "Cammy" has shipped 287,100 and the time is drawing nigh when another shipment will have to be made. "Cam" is short of funds to purchase these smokes so how about you digging down and dropping a few nickies, dimes and quarters into the little yellow boxes that sit on the counters in the stores. If you like you can hand in one, two, five or ten dollar bills at the drug store. Here are some more letters.

COUNCIL RECEIVES OFFERS FOR ANDERSON PROPERTY

POPULATION HAS INCREASED ASSESSMENT HAS DECREASED

Three Propositions Discussed But No Action Taken Until All Prospective Purchasers Have Been Interviewed — One Buyer Would Turn House Into Apartments and Build Three New Houses.

SETTLE FIRE LOSS

Eighteen Acres of Land on South Side of Main Street Sold to James Aitchison For $3,034 — $35,000 in Taxes Collected in April.

At Town council meeting last night Mayor Johnson expressed himself very strongly on the question of rumors and the people who spread them. He told council that for the many weeks rumors had been afloat to the effect that the distillery was going to be closed. This is not a fact. The distillery is not closing and the United Distillers have no such idea in mind.

Mr. Patenaude, who has been the local manager since the United people took the property over is leaving Grimsby to reside in Montreal, but a new manager will come here to replace him.

Council dealt with three different offers for the Anderson house and lot on the north side of Main street but did not decide to accept any one of them until they have had a chance to interview the prospective purchasers. One offer agreed to pay $2,540, the amount the town has involved in the property.

SCHOOL TEACHERS GRANTED INCREASE IN THEIR SALARIES

Eleven Teachers And Music Supervisor Will Get an Extra $50 This Year — Salary of The Principals Remains The Same — 100 Pupils Have Registered For Farm Service — 31 Are on Full Time And 15 on Part Time Work.

Operational costs of Grimsby schools will be at least $600 higher this year than last, owing to increases in pay granted to 11 school teachers and the musical supervisor, by Board of Education at their monthly meeting last week.

Six lady teachers and one male teacher in the public schools, four teachers in the high school and the musical director were each granted a raise in salary of $50. following representation by the teachers.

Public school salaries will run from $975 to $1,100 for the lady teachers, while the principal will be paid $2,100, and the other male teacher $1,350.

P. V. Smith, high school principal, will receive $3,000 and the other four high school teachers will range from $1,650 to $1,750.

Gordon Eaton, music director, will receive $50 more for his public school work but no extra for high school, making his salary $450 and $200 respectively.

P. V. Smith told the board that 100 pupils are registered for farm service. Thirty-one are on full time work, 15 on part time and one joined the R.C.A.F. a week ago.

Accounts for $291 were passed for payment.

Mr. Smith also presented to the board, on behalf of high school staff, the desires of the Teachers' Federation for a definite salary schedule with fixed minimum and maximum. After lengthy discussion the matter was dropped for the present.

GRIMSBY BOY IS SURPRISED AT SIZE OF ENGLISH FARMS

Earl Cornwall Visits Isle of Wight And Sees One Estate With 4,000 Acres Under Cultivation — 1,000 Acres of Staked Tomatoes — None of The Land Was Cultivated Before The War — Intends to Visit Grimsby's Namesake — Many Grimsby Boys Are Together.

Edward Todd, Manager of the Robinson street Canadian Canners factory received a very newsworthy letter last week from Pte. Earl Cornwall, R.H.L.I. who has been overseas almost three years. "Cornie" of course is an old soldier having served fourteen years in the American Marines, part of it in the last war.

Somewhere in England,

March 31st, 1942

My Dear Mr. Todd:
I just received your surprising and most welcome letter as I was going out but thought I would answer it right away.

I had wondered why you hadn't written as I sent you a couple of cards, but thought you were too busy these days to even think of me. Ha!

I am sure glad you are well, at least you seem to be holding your own, as they say, can't kill an old soldier and I don't think they can. We have had a grand winter, beat since I have been over here, but we are having rain now which isn't unusual over here, but I guess pretty bad which I hope hasn't hurt any of the fruit.

I wish you could see this country. You would like it very much, and talk about farms, we aren't in it at all at home. I was over on the Isle of Wight last summer for nine weeks and I saw 1000 acres of staked tomatoes, 1000 acres of cabbage, 600 acres of gherkins, 1000 acres of potatoes, 1000 acres of carrots on one estate alone, so you see we aren't in it in Canada, but that is only since the war, they had nothing before.

You sure had a heavy peach

NATIONAL WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE Province of Ontario

To the Citizens of Grimsby Town and Township:

THIS IS AN ELEVENTH HOUR CALL FOR YOUR HELP

The Victory Loan drive has now entered the final days. The Town of Grimsby and Township of North Grimsby, have been allotted an objective of $350,000.00. To date the citizens have bought approximately $265,000.00 and we have estimated that by the close of business Saturday, the 15th, we will be short $35,000.00 of our objective.

This letter has a two fold purpose: First to thank those loyal citizens who have responded so generously to the appeal to help our country in its hour of great need. Secondly, to set forth the need for greater effort wherever it is possible.

We believe that anything short of the objective is insufficient to "Back the Attack", and support the men who are fighting so magnificently in the theatre of war.

Our Government has asked that citizens not only buy what they can for cash, but also purchase as much as possible for future payment.

As we thank you sincerely for the courteous way in which you have received the Canvassers, we ask everyone to review the situation fully before the campaign is completed.

If you are a citizen who has not purchased, will you carefully reconsider the matter? If you have already subscribed, will you be kind enough to check your purchase carefully to see whether it can be increased?

If you are able to assist further, in meeting the objective, your kindness in communicating with the Canvassers, will be greatly appreciated.

Yours for Victory,

A. R. GLOBE,

Local Chairman Victory Loan Committee.

Please excuse me writing like this, but I did intend coming to your city, before I left Canada, but I expect to be leaving here about the end of this month.

Facts And Fancies

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

HILTER'S DEPUTY

"Hitler's deputy in Canada is inflation," says The Financial Post in a full page "Back the Attack" appeal of the Victory Loan. Taxes and the Victory Loans are the sound methods of warding off the vicious and destroying evil condition, when a dollar will not buy a newspaper. How many people realize just what inflation means? The Post, in a few short paragraphs, puts the case succinctly:

Wages can never catch up with prices of inflation gets going. As prices climb more and more, we get less and less for our money.

If our pay is increased to ease the squeeze, higher production costs mean another boost in selling prices.

And on and on the spiral goes. No matter how fast or how often income goes up, prices keep climbing beyond our reach.

Inflation would only impoverish you. It would seriously weaken your ability to help win the war. It would result in tremendous and needless hardships afterward.

The real value of our savings in the bank, in pensions, annuities, insurance policies and so on depends on how much our dollar will buy when we need it to spend.

In inflation, prices double, treble and go on doubling and trebling. When prices double the $100 you have saved is worth only $50; when prices double again, only $25—down and down.

Inflation can easily mean that a whole day's pay won't buy one street car ticket.

Inflation hits worst the man on wages or salary; and especially the man who is facing up to his responsibilities and working today for his own and his family's tomorrow.

Every puncture in the ceiling on wages and prices, every leak in it, is just another advance toward an inflationary condition. And that condition would not only ruin tens of thousands of individuals of thrift and enterprise, but it would rock, if not destroy, the whole structure of Canadian society.

The Victory Loan will not only help win the war, but it will help to save the country from within and forestall violence to the common Canadian way of life.

HAIRPIN INGENUITY

From kitchen to factory is but over the threshold in these days. Women are not only stepping easily from sink to assembly line, but they're adapting domestic wrinkles to mass production.

Because a woman war worker remembered how her mother used to keep hot doughnuts from sticking together, she was able to save thousands of man-hours in the manufacture of rubber rings for airplane engines.

The rings were piled into when they were hot and many stuck together. These had to be scrapped.

Recalling that her mother had put flour between doughnuts to keep them apart, this ingenious war worker used pumice powder between the rubber rings. It worked, and all wastage was eliminated.

Another woman in an aircraft factory decided that eleven steps in the painting of strips of color on a tube were too many. "I could do it with this-and-this-and-his," she explained, blocking out three brief operations. She saved eight hours per plane by this short-cut.

Men show more initiative in factory work, according to one employer, but women have more ingenuity. That's easy to explain. Ask any housewife. How did she manage to keep the family budget in balance? It took ingenuity!

A little patching here, a little darning there, and plenty of fast thinking when friend husband brought somme home unannounced to dinner. And wat couldn't she fix with a hairpin?

Ingenuity is an asset on any job, and "experience: housewife" is nothing to apologize for in any employment office.

I'LL TAKE VANILLA

First he walks, then he talks, and the first two words he puts together are ice cream. That is, if he's an American youngster. From then on, it's his favorite dessert. And now he thinks of it—mountains of it—when he's fighting in Africa, or building airfields in the jungles.

The story is told of a Marine in Guadalcanal who discovered an ice cream freezer. There was high excitement in the camp. Someone rushed for ice which he found in an ice-house abandoned by the Japanese. Everyone fought for a chance to turn the freezer.

There was a gallon and a half to be divided between 85 Marines. It wasn't much. It wasn't frozen very stiff, "but it was the best thing we ate on the island," vowed one Marine.

Canadian fliers in Britain have discovered an ingenious way to make their favorite dessert. They mix the ice cream in a large tin can and anchor it in the gunner's compartment of a Flying Fortress. Soaring high over enemy territory, it is well shaken and frozen to perfection. Upon return to base, a successful raid is celebrated in true Canadian style.

Ice cream on the home front is a bit on the scarce side now, with heavy whipping cream off the menu for the duration. But wars don't last forever. Someday again there'll be plenty of strawberry-chocolate-and-vanilla, or what have you, in all those wonderful varieties that stagger imagination and memory and tease the palate. Not that it's important at all. It's just pleasant to think about.

HARD WORK

A philosopher remarks that the boys want to be great men, up to the time they learn that great men usually have had to work very hard to attain their greatness.

This applies to all, young or old, who aspire for any special success in their occupation. The leaders of business are usually people who have had to strive and struggle to get where they are.

They work about the same hours as their help, and then a good part of their evening time is apt to be devoted to business problems. Often they lie awake nights, trying to figure out how they are going to get by some difficulty.

Away Back When

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

MANY of the younger generation and those that have lived not long in Grimsby are inclined to think that Grimsby in the past has been short of entertainment and the talent to give that entertainment, but many a good concert, cantata, and other entertainment has been given in the past half century, and it was not necessary to go outside of the district to find that talent—which today seems invariably necessary.

Sixty-three years ago this week a cantata was produced in Grimsby in which ninety-two participated and ninety of them were of Grimsby. There were thirty-seven women and twelve men, the remainder being maidens, youths and children, ranging from less than seven years up. And of those forty-nine grown-ups, there was none but what could sing. They were not Langtry nor Galli-Curcius; they had not studied in London or Paris; probably the majority had their tutu's in the old tonic sol fa way; and some perhaps were not soloists. But the ensemble at that time had, probably, about forty per cent of the population that it has today. (I wonder where they would get the talent today.)

A list of those taking part will show names familiar to all who were resident here at the time, and many of those on that list are still residents of Grimsby. Over a score are dead, and others scattered ed the continent over.

To those who have read and remembered the Book of Esther the story is plain, and to those who have not read it—it is time they did so. The printed programme was four pages nine by twelve-inches. In those days printers' copy was, as now, ten feet to the imagination of the printer in deciphering names, so that there are many of them names that were not just as the reader had them—as for instance it has Mr. F. Wauk for Hawke, and Bertram Joy for Joy, and in every case for Nam Nellis appears for Nelles. I have departed from the programme to correct these various errors and think I have them correct with few exceptions.

The Germans Have A Word For It

Leafing through the dictionary we came across a word that was quite new, at least to us: Pandour.

The Pandours were a force of rapacious and brutal soldiers raised by Baron Franz Trenck in 1741, and afterwards enrolled in the Austrian army.

Here is a word, ready to your hand, that you can cast at the Germans. The best of it is, it's one of their own words. It may replace "Hun", used in the first Great War and now out-modeled, and which was not quite suitable, as the original Huns did have their few good points. Remember Attila?

Franz Trenck and his cousin Friedrich were a pair of beauties. Both had more than shady careers. Franz's brutalities and robberies made him detested through all Austria and Silesia. He sold and withdrew commissions to his officers without Queen Maria Theresa's leave, and padded the payrolls. He was court-martialed and condemned to death but the sentence was commuted by the Queen into one of cashiering and imprisonment. Friedrich was living in Paris at the time of the Revolution and though he came through it safely was denounced as an Austrian spy and guillotined in 1794.

Come to think of it, perhaps we'd better not call anybody names, not even our enemies. It isn't dignified, and it does good to no one, not to our enemy and certainly not to us.

Canadian Literature

Prof. E. K. Brown, chairman of the Department of English at Cornell University, speaking to the Women's Canadian Club in Hamilton last week, said that Canadian literature is almost totally unknown outside Canada.

Well, personally we have no quarrel with that statement. Canadian writers are not seeking noisy notoriety. Rather they aim to express the entity that is Canada. If by chance their efforts should cross the Border and arouse some warmth of interest in the insular minds of our neighbours under the Stars and Stripes, that is all to the good. Both countries would tend to profit. The real trouble is that many Americans find it impossible to grasp the idea that a book can be written by any one but an American (meaning a native of the U.S.).

A year ago we visited one of the largest bookshops in the United States. Seeing a number of Canadian books displayed, among them The Unknown Country, Quietly My Captain Waits, and several of L. M. Montgomery's, we asked the proprietor who was standing near if there was much interest shown in Canadian books. "No," he replied, "we are seldom asked for them and never carry them." Pointing to the books named we enquired if he had sold many copies. "Oh yes, there is considerable demand for them, and we find it difficult to keep enough of the Montgomery books in stock." Gently we hinted that they were Canadian books by Canadian authors, and that Prince Edward Island, the setting for most of L. M. Montgomery's books, was a Canadian Province. This last was too much for the gentleman. He assured us that Prince Edward Island was near New Brunswick which was part of the State of Maine and therefore belonged to the United States, and that all these books had been published in the States and therefore were written by Americans.

What kind of geography do they teach in the States, we want to know? It would seem that the book most required by them is an up-to-date and authentic atlas.

Our choicest national literature lies in our magazines and newspapers other than between the hard and circumscribed covers of books.

Prof. Brown went on to say that we Canadians regard ourselves as colonials and still have a frontier, materialistic view; and that puritanism is rampant throughout the country. Canada, he says, is not a fully intimate country. Regional feelings are still very strong, and it is likely that a period of regional art lies ahead which will stress the specific irregularities of the country, and not the general life of Canada.

Quite right, Prof. Brown. That is the state of the case exactly. The cure, as we see it, is travel. Intelligent, purposeful travel in Canada by Canadians. That should come after the war as a part of the country's post-war plans. There should be annual travel tours for schools, for church groups, for organizations, and for people generally who do not belong in any of these categories. There should be hiking tours, bus and train tours, tours by air, and combinations of all four methods. Every nook and cranny of Canada should be reached by Canadian people.

This will go far to remove the "regional feelings" about which Prof. Brown complains and will improve all phases of our national life, including our shortcomings in the realm of literature and art.

Peter And John Preach To Samaritans

Acts 8: 14-25

GOLDEN TEXT

Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest—John 4:35.

An Introduction to the Lesson

It was a great step forward when Philip the Evangelist, guided by the spirit, went to the Samaritans with the Gospel. It seems strange, in view of our Lord's definite command, that the apostles did not take the lead. He said, "ye shall receive the power of the Holy Spirit coming upon you and ye shall be witnesses unto me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth. There was no hesitation on the part of the apostles in preaching the Gospels in Jerusalem and Judea. Months afterwards Philip had the faith to go to Samaria with the Gospel. It meant much to take this step, for the prejudice to be overcome was great; but from the first, the testimony was owned and blessed of the Lord. Many of the Samaritans responded to the message of the Gospel. News of this reached Jerusalem, and the apostles Peter and John went up to identify themselves with the work in an official way, thus bringing unity between Jews and Samaritans.

The Heart of the Lesson

God will carry out His purpose of grace toward lost men even if leaders are slow to fall in with His plans. He reserves to Himself the right to take up and use whom He chooses, and through humbler instruments to stir up those of greater gifts and ability. Philip was thrust forth to preach the Gospel to a despised people, and thus the apostles were moved to recognize what God had wrought, and to enlarge their own testimony.

Application

When Christians are slow to carry out the commands of the Lord as to world evangelization, God sometimes permits persecution in order to scatter them abroad and so get the Gospel out to the greatest possible number.

MADE IN CANADA

THE STORY BEHIND MEAT RATIONING

Food is a weapon of war, and we must share our supplies with those who are fighting to keep the war from our shores. After all special wartime demands are taken care of, only one half of the meat produced in Canada will be available for ordinary domestic consumption at home.

Meat supplies for our Armed Forces must be maintained at all costs.

Canned meat is required in large quantities by the Red Cross to send to our boys who are prisoners of war.

Great Britain has to depend more and more on Canada for supplies to maintain even its present low ration rate of 28 cents worth of meat per person, per week.

Places like Newfoundland and the West Indies, which previously secured their meat from other sources—must now depend to a great extent on Canada.

The many extra ships of the United Nations now calling at Canadian ports, must be furnished with meat.

RATIONING IS INTELLIGENT FORESIGHT — INTELLIGENT PLANNING

Coupons rationing is the only way of ensuring equal sharing of the meat available for civilian consumption in Canada. Those with lots of money will not get more than their share—and those with less money will be assured of getting their fair share.

Rationing will help prevent local meat shortages such as occurred last year from becoming widespread and continuous throughout the whole Dominion. The incentive for panic-buying which empties butcher shops early in the day, will be eliminated.

THE MEAT RATION WILL BE AMPLE FOR HEALTH AND NUTRITION

Fortunately, our meat production in Canada has increased. So, although only half our production will be available for civilian use, it will mean a reduction of only about 15% to 20% in the average household consumption.

The proposed ration of 2 lbs. (carcass weight) per person, per week, has been approved by the country's leading food and nutrition authorities, as ample for the health and nutrition standards of everyone—regardless of age or occupation.

DATES AND OTHER DETAILS REGARDING MEAT RATIONING—SOON TO BECOME EFFECTIVE IN CANADA—WILL BE ANNOUNCED LATER

"Seems I Can't Save Anything . . ."

WE MET on Main Street. Jim had his usual ready smile, even when he got telling me how hard up he was.

"Seems funny," he said, "I'm earning more these days, but I just can't seem to keep it."

"Taxes, Victory bonds and all those other things coming off my pay."

He paused, then went on slowly.

"At least it seems as though I can't save anything. Actually, of course, those war bonds are my savings. I'm glad I've salted away a few of them. And you can count me in on the Fourth Victory Loan too!"

Bright Ideas For Conservation

(These suggested ideas for conservation of materials and food-stuffs, that will appear in The Independent from time to time, are provided by the Grimsby branch of the Women's Advisory Committee of the Consumer's branch of the W.P.T.E.—Ed.)

Old rubber rings can be used on jars again and again by dipping them in melted paraffine and placing them on jars.

One or two cuffs of men's shirts can be used for pot-holder, and button-hole on same be used for hanging same up.

To save woolen blankets—place them between a double flannelette blanket, then baste same on. In this way you just remove the flannelette blankets for washing.

To make sheets and blankets wear longer—cut down centre when worn thin and join the outside together in centre—thus giving twice the wear to same.

Old Electrical Equipment—such as irons, toasters, mixers, hot plates, etc., can be repaired (even though they seem beyond repair) according to information received.

As there are so many calls for same—and the manufacture of these has ceased for the duration, kindly see if you have any. These can be repaired and sold again to those who are unable to purchase new ones.

By taking wrappers off soap and allowing some time to elapse before using same—the bar of soap will last much longer.

Saving FATS.—It was suggested—not wait until a pound was saved, but to take it to St. John and Shaw's butcher shop when even a tablespoonful or two was saved. This small amount would add up to many pounds where hundreds of people contributed.

The mink is the most valuable of all Alaskan land fur animals, annual peltry exports before the war amounted to nearly half a million dollars.

After Dog Owners

Orders Are Orders to The Doughty "Copper" And he Intends to Make Canine Lovers Live up to The Law.

These are dog days for the dog owner who has not paid his dog tax and for the owner who allows his canine to run at large.

Chief W. W. Turner has strict orders to collect all dog taxes or have the dog whose tax is in arrears destroyed and the doughty Chief intends to carry out his orders. This also goes for all dogs found running at large.

Last week the Chief picked up a dog and placed it in pound. The owner did not claim it and on Wednesday it was turned over to the Humane Society Inspector for destruction.

Moreover, Township dogs are not going to be allowed to wander into Town on visits to their city cousins. Last Friday the Chief snared a Township bone chewer and knowing who it belonged to notified the owner who came and claimed the pup after paying poundage fees.

The Chief states that in the future all Township dogs picked up in the town will be turned over to the Humane Society the same as Township dogs not claimed and if the rural owner does claim the dog then he will be summonsed to court for allowing his animal to run at large in the Town.

erty and proposed to turn the present brick residence into four apartments. Also to build at least one new house this year and two new ones next year. Also to move the barn to another location and convert it into a house.

The eighteen acres of land on the south side of the road council decided to sell to James Aitchison for the sum of $3,034.33. It is understood that Mr. Aitchison will use the property for nursery purposes.

While he did not mention any names Mayor Johnson reported that the Building Inspector had informed him that a resident in town was building a garage with a sun room on top of it without first procuring the necessary building permit. This man had informed the Inspector that he did not have to have a permit and had no intention of procuring one. There is a possibility that the Inspector may prosecute this case.

Gerald Liddle appeared before council re the flowing of water across his land from the Grimsby mountain road, which is a county road. He has in the past consulted the County Engineer but up to now no relief has been given. It is not only drainage water from the road at time of rains but there is an almost continuous seepage of water.

The town is also interested in this question as they are having trouble on Robinson street with water from the same source. Chairman of Board of Works Baker, will take the matter up with the County Engineer.

Mayor Johnson reported that the Water Commission were still unable to remedy conditions at the pump house owing to the continued bad weather.

Some good sized boys have been in the habit of fishing in the Cemetery Pond on Sundays, which Mayor Johnson did not believe should be tolerated. Councillor Bull stated that the superintendent of the cemetery had been instructed to see that the practice is stopped.

General accounts for $178 were passed.

A satisfactory adjustment of the loss at the town barn has been made with the insurance company.

Joint fire committee accounts amounting to $119.16 were ordered paid.

Relief accounts for April for $51.78 were ordered paid.

Chief of Police Turner reported no police court cases for April; complaints investigated, 28; one stolen car recovered; transients, 3; four dogs and seven cats turned over to Humane Society; dog tax collected $101.50. Dog tax collected to date, this year, totals $179.

K. C. Baxter bought a building lot on St. Andrew's avenue, next to Dr. B. T. Rogers. He will build a new house on it this summer.

Tax Collector Hummel, reported that taxes collected in April totaled $14,560.22, as compared with $17,458.89 in 1942. Taxes collected since January first amount to $35,005.52, as compared to $44,916.80 in 1942.

Council took no action on proclaiming May 24th a public holiday.

At the time of the fire in the town barn Val. Tisdale, town teamster suffered the loss of a five dollar bill. Council will compensate him for this loss.

A motion was passed granting Mayor Johnson the sum of $100 to cover expenses incurred on town business.

The press boys thanked the council for a new lamp shade they have provided for the press table lamp.

$15,000 worth of cancelled town debentures have been returned by the holders. These are Hydro debentures due in 1942 and also in 1960 and 1961 due debenture.

SPORTOLOGY

By Bones Livingston, Sportologist

Bill Gaynor, Sports Editor of The Niagara Falls Review had this very interesting article in print in a recent issue:

Fanning with Gerry Carson and Jack McVicar, former National Hockey League defence stars, in the General Brock Hotel recently, we were taken back of the scenes in hockey's lush era of the mid and late twenties, when both Maroons and Canadiens were playing to packed audiences in Montreal and some of the all-time greats of the game were cluttering the lineups of these two colorful aggregations. Both agreed that Howie Morenz was the all-time tops and neither could think of a defence player to equal Sprague Cleghorn. Gerry called Lester Patrick the smartest coach he ever knew, while Mac sang the praises of James Strachan, Maroon executive head and Leo Dandurand and Joe Catarinich were given similar ratings by the Carson man. But the most amusing part of the conversation was an insight on the way Cleghorn clowned his way through coaching berths with both Maroons and Newark, the latter a Canadian-American League Club.

McVicar told of Sprague convincing the room clerk in a Philadelphia hotel, where the color line prevailed, that Newark's negro trainer was a Canadian Indian, but having the latter ejected early the following morning after scattering sneezing powder and other noise-making devices in the boy's room, which brought numerous complaints from occupants of nearby rooms, causing the appearance of the house detective, who refused to listen to further Cleghorn pleas to have the colored man left on the premises.

"Well," said Jack, "I could relate dozens of similar pranks by Sprague, and his serious moods were so seldom that the team's shortcomings were of a secondary consideration to him." "Why, I recall a meeting of Maroons in the Lincoln Hotel, New York, when owner Jimmie Strachan failed to make any headway in a pep talk, due to Sprague making use of a cow sounding device, which he carried in his pocket, everytime the owner brought out any important advice, and to his dying day, I doubt if Mr. Strachan knew who the culprit was."

"And he made no exception when pulling these playboy acts, an Ottawa player once told me that his teammates had to steal a hand shaking trick spring, which Sprague had intended carrying under his coat when the Senators were being presented to the Governor-General, despite these moments of levity, Cleghorn was the ideal hockey player, and I don't think his equal ever showed on any major team's defense. He also had the stuff to be the greatest coach that the sport ever produced, but his insistence on clowning prevented such a happening."

At this stage, Gerry spelled his old defense past of amateur days off and swung the subject to Howie Morenz. "Sprague," he said, "was every bit as great in the playing department as Jack has told you, but in my book, Howie Morenz was the all-time greatest in puck perfection, and his death deprived the sport of the real Mr. Hockey. He was the game's Babe Ruth and only the famed home run king surpassed the dynamic centre ace in fan appeal."

"His speed, bullet shooting and ability to score goals when the checks were down, made him the number one attraction in every big league city and nobody else mattered to the onlookers when Howie was in stride. I had the advantage of playing on his team, and I often wondered how opposing defense men felt when he was heading in their direction." "I," said McVicar, "can answer that one, and say that it was anything but a pleasant thought that came into your mind when that 'ball of fire' was approaching."

When the question of coaches came up, McVicar said the greatest assistance any coach could be was to detect a player's mistakes and impress same on the erring party, but Carson said his short stay under Lester Patrick convinced him that the Ranger head could do this to perfection and likewise take you out on the ice and show you how to correct same, and he thought Lester was the most intelligent leader that ever handled a club.

Both men had high praise for Johnny Mowers, each contending that the Falls boy had earned a spot among the top goalies in big-time puck history, and when they were informed that the local product was still three or four years off the thirty mark, it was agreed that he was due for numerous other laurels before finishing his career. They called his marvellous gesture on the part of both the Industrial League and Junior Chamber of Commerce in honoring Johnny with a gigantic banquet, at which several of hockey's greatest names would hold prominent spots.

The two recalled their amateur playing days with the famous Grimsby Peach Kings and said many of their games against Falls teams under the leadership of the late Gene Fraser were harder than many they had encountered after getting into the N.H.L. with Maroons and Canadiens. Our half hour's visit with the big leaguers of a few seasons back was most interesting and brought out practically every side of the winter pastime.

GRIMSBY BOY

crop last summer and I bet everything turned out O.K. too. It would sure have to if Mr. Todd had anything to do with it, of course you sure have two good boys to help, Norman and Lorne, not many fathers have got sons to stick like those fellows do. You should be proud of them.

Things over here are pretty good now, really sometimes I think better than at home, but we have had some hard times '40-'41' was hell but we have got them on the run now I think and let's hope we can keep them that way. But what I have been thinking of, it isn't the war so much but after the war, but I guess we will wait until it's finished and then think of what is to come.

I bet you have had a hard time getting help, such as they are you should try to get them like Hitler does, take them, Ha!

All the boys I know here, that you know, are well. Shoebridge, Dr. Sinclair, Fairbank is my paymaster; Jerry Simpson, Silvers Corman, they are all here with me.

I am glad my family are all well and growing, which if I stay here many more years they may be all married off on me. I bet I would hardly know them.

I am think of going to Grimsby, England and if I get there I will sure remember you while I am there and send you a Cablegram so you can put it up in your office, Grimsby to Grimsby, that would be alright wouldn't it?

We had a pretty heavy raid close by here last night from 12:15 to 1 a.m. and the sky was all red, it looked as if it was close to London, have not heard what damage it did, if any.

Well, Mr. Todd, I think I will close for now hoping to hear from you again soon and wish you good health and good luck and by the way, I received a letter from your old friend Mr. Jack Gibson around Christmas and he owes me a letter so prop him up about it, will you, Ha! and remember me to all the old boys, Norman, Lorney, Harry, Andy, Game and all the rest, and I'll be with you all again some sweet day.

As ever,

Your old stand by,
"Cornie"

GRIMSBY ENGLAND
Also I should be very pleased if I could take a message back to the people of Grimsby, because I know how pleased they would be if they receive a message from you people over here.

The people of Grimsby are doing a splendid job of work, and they are also taking their fair share of air raids.

You will know that my home town is the World's Largest Fishing Port, so you will be able to guess the very hard, and of the most important kind of job they are doing.

I hope I haven't taken too much liberty in writing to you like this, Sir, but I hope you will be able to see what a message means to the folk of Grimsby, who are really in the front line.

Hoping to hear from you soon, also a message for the grand people of Grimsby, since I would give it to the Mayor myself.

Yours sincerely,
D. M. Noble.

PLAYED THE GAME
and two days later he passed away, leaving behind him in the hospital a sorrowing friend who realizes that he would never have been able to leave that French beach for England had he not been assisted by his boyhood friend Bill Juhlike.

John Montgomery left the hospital on February 6th last and sailed for home on March 30th. After a furlough at his home here he will report at Toronto where he must undergo another operation on his shoulder. He does not expect to be able to return to active combat duty again.

POPULATION HAS
able land that is being yearly washed out into the lake, can be preserved.

Assessor Gordon Metcalfe backed up Mr. Mitchell by stating facts from his assessment roll. This year he had 16 different ratepayers who told him bluntly that they were going to have their property surveyed and get the exact acreage, owing to the fact that they have been losing land by the lake storms. The inroads of the lake have been so bad in one spot, the Rugay's place next the old Lake Shore Roses plant, that he has cut the acreage by two acres. Mr. Mitchell stated that the house in this particular property had been moved back from the bank edge three times in the past 50 years and it to be moved again.

At the last meeting of the council Councillor Mitchell, aided and abetted by the other members, raised quite a storm over the actions of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board and openly predicted that there would be a food shortage in the country unless the farmer was given some relief. A strong resolution was passed and forwarded to Premier W. L. Mackenzie King.

To the surprise of the council, they received an answer to that resolution from H. R. L. Henry, private secretary to Mr. King, wherein he stated that the matter would be drawn to the attention of the Trade Board. Council received a second surprise, in the fact that the Trade Board were consulted, as under date of April 30th, a letter from the Board was received, signed by F. S. Grisdale, Deputy Foods Administrator. It reads as follows:

"In reply to your resolution, stating there will be a serious food shortage as a result of low ceilings on farm products by the W.P.T.B., the Board is giving material assistance to production through price ceiling adjustment and subsidies. The farmers have responded admirably to the crying need for greater production and in 1942 produced very much more food than in any previous year. They, we believe, under very adverse labor conditions, will do their utmost to repeat in 1943 the record performance of 1942. When the producers have come to the government with specific requests pertaining to some commodity they have received favorable hearing and their producer problems have been assisted whenever possible."

"That is the first time I ever heard tell of a resolution getting such fast action. There must be an election in the offing," commented Councillor Mitchell.

On a motion sponsored by Mitchell and Nelles and supported unanimously, all North Grimsby men overseas will receive a copy of the Independent every week. Council subscribed for 47 copies of this paper and as other township men proceed overseas they will be added to the list.

Road Supt. Thos. Mackie was not in any too good frame of mind when he made his monthly report. He has had a bad slide on the Woolverton mountain road. This slide 175 feet long not only brought down thousands of yards of earth, trees as big around as a man's body, rocks that would weigh 1800 to 2000 pounds, but it carried away a section of his road. The slide is not all cleaned up but there is a passable road now open. Other roads in the township are starting to get solid again and will come out of the winter in better shape than at first anticipated.

Work at the township quarry has been stopped owing to a shortage of labor and the fact that an air compressor for drilling in the rock cannot be secured at the present time. About 75 cord of stone have been taken out.

J. G. McIntosh, tax collector reported that only $632.41 in tax arrears had been collected in April. There are still $17,120.19 outstanding.

Assessor Gordon Metcalfe has finished his assessing for the year 1944 and his roll has been accepted by council. Township made a gain in population of 251 during the past year. In 1942 it was 1,783, it is now 2,034.

Total assessment of the township is $1,651,840.00 which is $10,453 less than last year, despite the fact that $3,332 in new building assessment has been added on. This drop is due to loss to the township of the assessment of the Lake Shore Roses greenhouses which were torn down last summer.

Council ordered the Assessor to collect all dog taxes and collect them.

M. S. Nelles was appointed a Game Warden for the township, as requested by the Department of Game and Fisheries.

Water consumption in the west end of the township in April was 113,000 gallons. East end 428,000 gallons.

Press boys presented councillor Mitchell with a new cigar to chew on and that ended the meeting.

Fujiyama, though an active volcano, remained quiet during the great Tokio earthquake of 1923.

No restriction is probable on the sale of cigarettes, as the stocks of cigarette tobacco are adequate for the time being.

LET'S EACH BUY MORE VICTORY BONDS

It looks as though this community will meet the quota of Victory Bonds which we were expected to buy. That's fine, but let's not take this for granted. Let's make sure that our quota will be oversold.

As a matter of fact, there should be no quotas in connection with the sale of Victory Bonds. Until the war has been won there can't be no halting—no resting for any of us. We haven't won the war yet.

Our fighters are not working on a quota basis. They are "all out", doing everything they can to get the job done.

So, if we give this matter proper thought, each of us will buy more Victory Bonds. We will buy all we can for cash, and we will buy more—on the instalment plan—all we can pay for in the next six months. If necessary, we will scrimp to save to do it.

CANADA THROUGH

The realization, in Toronto, of the difference between men and customs, although only nine hours and a border separates us from the Dominion. For women (and men, too) who like directness, courage, vigor and honesty along with their glamour, I recommend the Canadian male (not ale, compositors, please) particularly the soldiery.

Noticing you can still buy all the shoes you want in Canada without Coupon No. 17. Ditto meat (meat rationing not beginning there until May). Hamburger stays around 23; round steak 38, pork chops 42, and sirloin 39 cents, which pleases the Merry Wives of Windsor, etc., as much as it dejects the Dames of Detroit just across the bridge. The answer is, that Canada's freezing and ceiling operations were much better timed and are identical all over the country. Canadians do not believe abbreviating the dog's tail an inch at a time less painful than amputating with one fell stroke.

Although the Royal York is now so crowded, you have to make advance reservations, the same elevator girls and bellhops are functioning as when last I was in Toronto about four months ago, and dispensing exactly the same courtesies.

Despite being three years in the war, food is still served to you at reasonable prices in Canada, not thrown at you for fabulous fees as in the Land of the Free. And people now doing defense work in C. do not put symbolic spikes in their soles (and souls) to walk across the hearts of white collar people. Canadians are in this war to win it, not to revenge themselves on their inferiors or gloat over their superiors. The comradeship and vitality of effort that exists among Canadian officers who seem happy in that there are no mercenary or financial differences between them. Also a man in the Canadian Army receives credit for his excellencies and ability, rather than for his genius for "tubeing" (apple polish).

Best regards,
Ted Scott.

ing to you and me) or the fact that his uncle played fiddle for the czar if you follow me.

Canadians do a lot of good-natured griping like their grousing brethren, the Britishers, the grievance now being the early in the day closing of beverage rooms, due to beer rationing. "It's pretty tough when you can't even cry into your beer," they say.

Hundreds of male fliers and fighters from every war era in the world, all bearing their allegiances embroidered upon their shoulders. And my discovery that a Polish flier, lunching in London, Ont., has the same propensity for letting his left eyelid flutter and linger on personable females as our predatory American wolves do on Broadway.

Those vigorous editorials in Canadian newspapers which tell everyone off, from the latest member to make the House of Commons, to Prime Minister Mackenzie King. The Canadians do not heckle with feather dusters . . . but with mops.

The self-conscious looks on the faces of those entering the hotels armed with brown paper bags, encasing something that looks like the product of grain and grape. This is particularly true in the case of femmes accompanying army officers. For with a swagger stick in one hand and the other to be left free for saluting, the glamorous and pipped male does not do any of his own bootlegging. Fine thing!

GRIMSBY BOYS
IN ENGLAND

Please thank the Grimsby Chamber of Commerce for the most welcome gift of Sweet Cap cigarettes.

I ran into a native of Grimsby by name of Barlow who played on Army championship hockey team. I coached the other finalist team but Barlow's team were too good for us. Too bad there couldn't be an all Grimsby team.

Best regards,

Ted Scott.

Many thanks for the cigarettes.

Art Lucy.

Please thank the members on my behalf once again for the thoughtfulness and generosity that prompted the sending of these.

Trust you are all well and happy.

Sincerely,

E. Banks.

Received 300 "Sweet Caps" to-day and wish to express my gratitude for the kindness of the senders. They arrived at a most opportune moment.

Hoping this reaches you.

Sincerely,

H. Taylor-Munro.

Dear Sir:

Received three hundred cigarettes on the 24th March, 1943, which were very much appreciated.

The weather over here has been swell of late, we have had no rain for thirty-seven days which over here is considered quite a record.

All the boys from home are feeling in the pink of health, or as much as the army will let them.

Last night I took the boys for a ride in a game of poker, I won approximately thirty-four shillings, enough to take me and my girl to a festival. I intend to play again tonight as my leave is almost due and I haven't saved enough money to see me through.

Hoping I win tonight and thanks again for your cigarettes, I remain,

Cpl. A. E. Konke.

Gentlemen:

Once again I wish to thank you for the cigarettes just received. Actually I had just come back from another tour of the country and had smoked English cigarettes for that time, so these came as a real treat. Thanking you again.

I remain,

Sgt Ken. Lambert.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for the carton of Sweet Caporals Cigarettes shipped from Montreal, January 29, which arrived here today. Canadian cigarettes are much superior to the war-time English varieties.

Yours sincerely,

R. E. McIntyre.

Thank you so much for 300 Sweet Caporals cigarettes received today. They are certainly welcome and greatly appreciated. Weather over here is fine these days. Good luck to your members and their good work.

G. Silver.

Sirs.

I wish to express my thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the cigarettes I have just received.

Pte. J. H. Hearn.

Thanks very much for the carton of cigarettes which I have recently received. Your committee is certainly doing very good work by supplying the boys over here with so many of their favourite smokes. Cigarettes from home are always greatly appreciated.

It only wish that we could show our appreciation more, by getting the war closer to the end, so that we could get home and thank you personally.

Kindly give my thanks and best wishes to all of your members.

John McCallum.

TO COMMENCE

After the war, when the whole plant is completed there will be a grey iron foundry, a brass foundry, sheet metal building as well as the main factory. The present building will be constructed of cinder blocks with possibly a red brick front. There will be no steel used at all.

The D. E. H. firm manufacture all kinds and types of electrical elements for stoves, heaters, etc. as well as a large line of small tools.

It is expected that the new building will be ready for occupancy within three months. Once manufacturing is started the firm will employ in the neighborhood of 25 to 30 hands for a starter.

AVOID THESE MISTAKES:

1. Never place your telephone on the wall nor on a narrow shelf. Keep it on a wide, firm table or desk.
2. Be careful that the cord does not hang over the drawer handle or knob. Opening the drawer may pull the telephone over, causing a fall and damage the cord.
3. Keep your telephone cord unknotted—winding may injure the case and necessitate replacement.
4. When painting, protect your telephone with a cloth or paper. When washing floors or walls, be sure that the cord does not get soaked with water.
5. Always replace the receiver carefully. Bang it down and you injure the delicate mechanism inside. (Be sure it is placed correctly when you support it, too, to avoid causing a "ring" signal.)
6. If you have dial service, please do not use a pencil or other sharp point when dialing. It scratches and damages the dial and often causes a wrong number as well.

Hundreds of male fliers and fighters from every war era in the world, all bearing their allegiances embroidered upon their shoulders. And my discovery that a Polish flier, lunching in London, Ont., has the same propensity for letting his left eyelid flutter and linger on personable females as our predatory American wolves do on Broadway.

Those vigorous editorials in Canadian newspapers which tell everyone off, from the latest member to make the House of Commons, to Prime Minister Mackenzie King. The Canadians do not heckle with feather dusters . . . but with mops.

The self-conscious looks on the faces of those entering the hotels armed with brown paper bags, encasing something that looks like the product of grain and grape. This is particularly true in the case of femmes accompanying army officers. For with a swagger stick in one hand and the other to be left free for saluting, the glamorous and pipped male does not do any of his own bootlegging. Fine thing!

GRIMSBY BOYS
IN ENGLAND

Please thank the Grimsby Chamber of Commerce for the most welcome gift of Sweet Cap cigarettes.

I ran into a native of Grimsby by name of Barlow who played on Army championship hockey team. I coached the other finalist team but Barlow's team were too good for us. Too bad there couldn't be an all Grimsby team.

Best regards,

Ted Scott.

Many thanks for the cigarettes.

Art Lucy.

Please thank the members on my behalf once again for the thoughtfulness and generosity that prompted the sending of these.

Trust you are all well and happy.

Sincerely,

E. Banks.

Received 300 "Sweet Caps" today and wish to express my gratitude for the kindness of the senders. They arrived at a most opportune moment.

Hoping this reaches you.

Sincerely,

H. Taylor-Munro.

Dear Sir:

Received three hundred cigarettes on the 24th March, 1943, which were very much appreciated.

The weather over here has been swell of late, we have had no rain for thirty-seven days which, over here is considered quite a record.

All the boys from home are feeling in the pink of health, or as much as the army will let them.

Last night I took the boys for a ride in a game of poker, I won approximately thirty-four shillings, enough to take me and my girl to a festival. I intend to play again tonight as my leave is almost due and I haven't saved enough money to see me through.

Hoping I win tonight and thanks again for your cigarettes. I remain,

Cpl. A. E. Konkle.

Gentlemen:

Once again I wish to thank you for the cigarettes just received. Actually I had just come back from another tour of the country and had smoked English cigarettes for that time, so these came as a real treat. Thanking you again.

I remain,

Sgt Ken. Lambert.

Dear Sir:

Thank you for the carton of Sweet Caporil Cigarettes shipped from Montreal, January 29, which arrived here today. Canadian cigarettes are much superior to the war-time English varieties.

Yours sincerely,

R. E. McIntyre.

Thank you so much for 300 Sweet Caporil cigarettes received today. They are certainly welcome and greatly appreciated. Weather over here is fine these days. Good luck to your members and their good work.

G. Silver.

Sirs.

I wish to express my thanks to the Chamber of Commerce for the cigarettes I have just received.

Pte. J. H. Hearn.

Thanks very much for the carton of cigarettes which I have recently received. Your committee is certainly doing very good work by supplying the boys over here with so many of their favourite smokes. Cigarettes from home are always greatly appreciated. I only wish that we could show our appreciation more, by getting the war closer to the end, so that we could get home and thank you personally.

Kindly give my thanks and best wishes to all of your members.

John McCallum.

TO COMMENCE

After the war, when the whole plant is completed there will be a grey iron foundry, a brass foundry, sheet metal building as well as the main factory. The present building will be constructed of cinder blocks with possibly a red brick front. There will be no steel used at all.

The D. E. H. firm manufacture all kinds and types of electrical elements for stoves, heaters, etc. as well as a large line of small tools.

It is expected that the new building will be ready for occupancy within three months. Once manufacturing is started the firm will employ in the neighborhood of 25 to 30 hands for a starter.
